

AFTER A LARGER MARKET

PLANS OF A TACOMA LUMBER COMPANY.

An Agent to be Sent to Hawaii, Australia and the Orient to Open Branch Yards.

Tacoma (Wash.), Oct. 15.—Henry Hewitt, treasurer of the St. Paul and Tacoma Lumber Company of this city, has gone to San Francisco, en route to Hawaii, Australia, Japan, China, India and South Africa on a very important mission. Five years ago his company entered the cargo lumber trade, and has done a large trade with the countries named, also California and South America. Branch lumber yards have been established in California and Central America, resulting in a great saving of commissions and other charges resultant from dealing through middle men.

Mr. Hewitt's mission is to establish similar branches in the countries named. Where possible men already in the business will be engaged, and if this cannot be done satisfactorily men will be sent from this country. When arrangements are completed the company proposes to acquire a number of vessels and others will be chartered. The establishment of a steamer line between Tacoma and Australia to operate in connection with the northern transcontinental lines has been in contemplation for some time, and if Mr. Hewitt is successful in Australia this line will soon become a reality.

Heretofore the company has been selling largely to Brown, Williams & Co. and other San Francisco firms who ship to the countries Hewitt is now going to visit.
